LONDON — BRIGHTON
4-8 SEPTEMBER 1982

ALL TALK. NO ACTION. The more the bosses use racism to divide the working class, the less our trade union leaders do about it. The WORKERS MARCH AGAINST RACISM is about to change all that. Five hundred marchers will be descending on the TUC conference in Brighton to demand

- ★ direct action against fascists at work and on the streets
- ★ trade union solidarity with black youth against the police
- ★ industrial action against deportations, fishing raids and passport checks
- ★ an end to racist hiring, firing and promotion practices — no colour bars!
