FROM IMMIGRATION TO REPATRIATION

WEEKEND OF DISCUSSION AND DEBATE
FOR ANTI-RACISTS FROM BRITAIN AND EUROPE

FRIDAY 13 - SUNDAY 15 JULY

Europe's rulers have their disagreements over wine lakes and butter mountains. But they are unanimous on the need to make foreign workers carry the can for the capitalist crisis

- In Germany Kohl's right-wing government has forced more than 30 000 migrant workers to accept 'voluntary' repatriation in the past six months
- In Mitterrand's socialist France riot police raid immigrant quarters and round up 'illegals' for deportation, while black workers face mass redundancies at the Peugeot and Citroen car plants
- In Holland a pro-repatriation party recently won 10 per cent of the vote in Rotterdam's local elections

The European labour movement is doing little to protect 12 million immigrant workers and their families from this racist offensive. How can anti-racists match Enoch Powell's call for 'concerted European action on immigration'? Discuss the issues and get organised at Preparing for Power.

Why is the far right calling the shots in the immigration debate, while the left competes for racist votes?

Judy Harrison, WAR's national organiser, examines the impact of the crisis on black workers in Europe.

Socialist government has meant racist terror for blacks in France. But immigrant workers are leading the resistance to the bosses' offensive. Gareth Evans provides a first hand view.

Round-table discussion on amnesties, work permits and 'illegals'. Should the immigration laws be reformed -- or scrapped? Can we stop raids and deportations? Join in the debate.

Migrants have few rights in Europe. But black women have none at all.

RACISM FASCISM

AND THE WORKING-CLASS

A WEEK LONG COURSE AT 'PREPARING FOR POWER'

WHAT IS RACISM?

Are all whites racist? Are all racists white? Judy Harrison gets to grips with the ABCs of fighting oppression.

'No votes for immigrants'. Amberes, Belgium.

MUNICIPAL RACISM

The GLC's anti-racist year: what's in it for black workers? Halal meat in schools: why is it the hottest political issue in Bradford?

Eileen McEvoy, Bradford WAR organiser and recent election candidate looks at the race relations record of Tory and Labour councils and asks: what's the difference?

'I HAD A DREAM'

Whatever happened to the black American dream? Today, America's blacks and Hispanics face mass unemployment and police terror. While Jesse Jackson campaigns for President, black ghettos threaten to erupt in another long, hot summer of riots. Zaro Costello, just back from the USA, reports on the prospects for American blacks

FASCISM AND ANTI-FASCISM

The French National Front wins 12 per cent in public opinion polls. Old Nazis are crawling out of the woodwork all over Europe. Judy Harrison extracts the lessons for today fascism in the thirties.

'THE POINT IS TO CHANGE IT' What did Marx, Lenin and Trotsky think about blacks? East London Workers Against Racism organiser Farehk Afzal looks at the communist tradition and leads a discussion on different strategies for fighting racism — reformist, separatist and revolutionary.

The miners' strike in Britain, carworkers' occupations in France, the metalworkers' strike in Germany — in recent months millions of workers across Europe have moved into battle against their employers.

Our class is fighting for its survival. But it cannot succeed if the labour movement remains divided along national and racial lines.

When Peugeot carworkers — mostly immigrants — went on strike near Paris in January, the bosses used hired scabs to whip up racism on the shop-floor and smash up the dispute.

British trade union leaders added insult to injury by offering to take on work from the strike-bound Peugeot plant.

Racism has always been a problem. But in the eighties it threatens to become a plague. The pressures of recession have made racism respectable. State attacks on blacks are accepted — and even encouraged — by the leaders of the labour movement.

The spread of racism into every aspect of life cannot be fought by appeals to reason. Racism will not go away until workers destroy it. That's why WORKERS AGAINST RACISM aims to build an anti-racist movement on the power of the organised working class.

WAR campaigns — in the unions and on the streets — against all immigration controls, and for workers' defence against racist attacks. Once we drive the racists out of our ranks and take up the fight for black workers' rights, the workers united will never be defeated. Join us!
